Lisbon, April 30.

ON the 23d Inſtant the King of Portugal, who had been for ſome Days at Salvatierra, returned hither: His Majeſty is now at Pedromos, a Houſe of the Duke of Cadoval's near Belem, about a League from this Town. On the 28th the Portugueze Squadron deſigned to act this Summer in Conjunction with the Venetians againſt the Turks, ſailed for the Levant, conſiſting of 1 Man of War of 84 Guns, 1 of 80, 3 of 66, and 2 of 56, with 2 Fireſhips, 1 Storeſhip, and a Tartan, under the Command of the Conde de Rio Admiral, and the Conde de St. Vincente Vice-Admiral. The Britiſh Conſul here, at the Requeſt of the Merchants, has purchaſed a Piece of Ground a little without this City, which is to be walled about at the Charge of the Factory, and remain as a Burying Place for the Uſe of the Britiſh Nation.

Madrid, May 3. The King, Queen, and Prince of Aſturias, went from hence Yeſterday in the Afternoon, and will arrive to Day at Balſain near Segovia. They are not expected back here till about 4 Months hence. The Court having received Advice three Days ago of the Arrival of Sig. Aldrovandi, the Pope's Nuncio, at Perpignan, a Courier was immediately diſpatched to him with an Order to forbear coming into this Kingdom. It has alſo been reſolved, that the Squadron which the King ſends this Year to act againſt the Turks, ſhall not be put under the Pope's Direction as laſt Summer, but ſhall join the Venetian Fleet; and the Venetian Ambaſſadour here, has ſent an Expreſs to Venice, to notify this Reſolution to that Republick.

Berne, May 1. The Deputies of this State went from hence Yeſterday for St. Gall, where they are to inquire into the Caſe of a Citizen of Berne, who with ſome others is accuſed of robbing the Chapel of that Abbey, and of committing ſeveral other Diſorders: It is ſaid they are likewiſe inſtructed to conſult with ſome Deputies of Zurich, about taking Meaſures for ſetting a Negotiation on foot with the Abbot, in order to put an End to the Differences between them. This State having Yeſterday taken into Conſideration the Affair of Neuveville, reſolved to write once again to the Biſhop of Porentru, to let him know that this Canton is determined to ſupport the Magiſtracy of that Town upon the Foot it ſtands at preſent according to their Rights and Privileges, and to deſire him to acquieſce in a Matter ſo reaſonable in it ſelf, and to conſider the Conſequences which any further Oppoſition on his Part muſt of Neceſſity produce, ſince this State is obliged by their Treaty of Comburgherſhip with the ſaid Town of Neuveville, to aſſiſt the Inhabitants in the Maintaining of their Rights, Liberties and Religion.

Geneva, May 10. Our Advices from Turin make no further mention of the King of Sicily's going to Nice, but ſay his Departure for Savoy was fixed to the 15th or 16th Inſtant. The Queen and the Prince of Piemont are to drink the Waters at St. Jean de Mauriennes for their Health, about 20 Days, during which Time the King will be at the Abbey of Thamiers, and then the whole Court is to come to Chamberry. His Majeſty has eſtabliſhed a Council for the Affairs of Sicily, and the Marqueſs de Carail, Governour of Turin, is made Preſident of it. The Militia and regular Troops in Savoy and Piemont, have newly been muſtered.

Leipſick, May 2. The King of Poland continues here, but about three Days hence his Majeſty will go back to Dreſden, accompanied by Prince William of Heſſe Caſſel; and after a few Days Stay there his Majeſty deſigns to go to the Waters at Carelsbadt. The Chapter of Nauenbourg have ſent Deputies hither to notify to the King, that conformably to the Treaty of Munſter they had declared that Biſhoprick vacant by the Duke of Saxe Zeits's changing his Religion; 'tis ſaid the King returned for Anſwer, That the Conſtitutions which had been made when any ſuch Caſe ſhould happen, ought to take Place; ſo that we expect in three Months Time to ſee the Electoral Prince choſen Biſhop of Nauenbourg. Lieutenent General Seckendorf, who is to enter in the ſame Quality into the Emperour's Service, and is to take with him a Regiment of Foot of the Margrave of Anſpach, goes from hence to Morrow for Vienna; as does General Berner to ſerve as a Volunteer this Campaign in Hungary, together with the Prince of Wirtemberg, who is in the King's Service, and who ſome Time ſince obtained Leave to make the Campaign againſt the Turks as a Volunteer likewiſe.
